

IDS 401: Interdisciplinary Research Fellowship

This IDS 401 special research fellowship students will learn in the course to apply various strategic skills and tools to understand the Economic, Political, Social, and Cultural situation in the East Valley communities served by the Polytechnic Campus. Students will be engaged in research and how they can use the skills to complete it.

Please fill out the boxes below for the application:

Student's Name (Last, First):	Student's ASU ID (10 digits located on your Suncard):	Student's ASU email:	Semester/Term (ex. Spring B 2024):

Please read and answer the questions below:

Concentration Integration – What are your two concentrations? And how will this course integrate your concentrations together?

Leadership – Please talk about your leadership experience providing details of your role and or project. What did you learn from that experience?

Learn – What do you hope to learn from this course?

