The Faculty of Counseling and Counseling Psychology in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts on the Tempe Campus at Arizona State University invites applications to establish a pool for Faculty Associates for the 2017-2018 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will teach graduate courses in counseling and counseling psychology and/or supervise student counseling and psychology trainees. Faculty Associate positions are one semester, non-benefits-eligible, fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon unit needs, funding, and sufficient enrollment.

Required Qualifications:
- PhD in counseling, counseling psychology, or related field at time of appointment

Desired Qualifications:
- Evidence of effective teaching and/or two years of related experience
- Licensed as a counselor, psychologist, or related helping professional

Application Procedure:
To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 11926.

Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:
1. A letter of application addressing required and desired qualifications
2. Current curriculum vitae
3. Unofficial graduate transcripts
4. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)

The application deadline is 04/14/2017 at 5pm; and if not filled, then every Friday beginning the week thereafter through the fiscal year (2018) based on the needs of the academic unit, and as needed for each semester period. A background check is required prior to employment. If you have position questions, please contact Dr. Lisa Spanierman at lisa.spanierman@asu.edu. For technical questions, please email: cisajobs@asu.edu.

General Information: Arizona State University is a comprehensive public research university named #1 in the United States for innovation for the second consecutive year, followed by #2 Stanford and #3 MIT. We measure our success not by whom we exclude, but rather by whom we include and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities we serve. ASU’s College of Integrative Sciences and Arts is home to innovative teachers who are guided by educational access, student success, applied learning, and interdisciplinary inquiry. We understand there are many paths to achieving a university education, and we build undergraduate and graduate degree programs and pathways that are flexible and relevant for a rapidly changing world.
