The Science and Mathematics faculty in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts on the Polytechnic Campus at Arizona State University invites applications for a Faculty Head and Associate/Full Professor position in Applied Biology with an anticipated start date of July 2018. The successful candidate will be expected to provide leadership to a team of approximately 50 faculty and instructional personnel dedicated to quality instruction and research in science and mathematics; contribute to the teaching in the Applied Biological Sciences program (typical teaching load is one course per semester); engage in research in the area of biology, and provide service to the program, college, university, profession, and community.

The Science and Mathematics faculty is comprised of tenured/tenure-track and contract faculty which offer Bachelor’s degrees in Applied Biological Sciences, Applied Physics and Applied Mathematics and a Master’s degree in Applied Biological Sciences. Students majoring in Applied Biological Sciences may, if they choose, specialize in Natural Resource Ecology, Pre-veterinary Medicine, Secondary Education in Biology, and Sustainable Horticulture. These rapidly growing degree programs emphasize cross-disciplinary research and involvement of undergraduate students in research.

The Faculty Head oversees personnel, laboratories and program management and reports directly to the Dean of the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts. The Associate/Full Professor position is an academic-year appointment in parallel with a 12-month administrative appointment and is benefits-eligible, with tenure implications. Salary is competitive to commensurate with experience and rank.

Required Qualifications:

- An earned terminal degree in Biology or related field
- Previous administrative experience at the program level or above
- Evidence of teaching excellence
- Strong research record

Desired Qualifications:

- Demonstrated success meeting the needs of diverse student populations and/or reaching out to diverse communities
- Demonstrated record of successful administrative leadership
- Demonstrated record of successful program development and innovation
- Extensive teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate level
- Record of ability to secure external funding

Application Procedure:
