The Faculty of Counseling and Counseling Psychology (CCP) in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts on the Tempe Campus at Arizona State University invites applications for the position of clinical assistant/associate professor and serve as Associate Director of the Counselor Training Center (CTC). CCP offers a doctoral program in counseling psychology that is accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA) and a master of counseling program in clinical mental health counseling. The CTC is a state-of-the-art counseling clinic that serves clients from the culturally-diverse local and university communities. Counselors- and psychologists-in-training work with clients under the supervision of clinical faculty members. The CTC supports three complementary functions: clinical service provision, high quality training, and innovative process and outcome research.

Arizona State University has developed a model for the New American University, creating an institution that is committed to excellence, access, and impact. Ranked #1 on the Most Innovative Schools list by U.S. News & World Report, ASU provides a vibrant intellectual community, pursues research that contributes to the public good, and assumes major responsibility for the economic, social, and cultural vitality of the communities it serves. In addition to exceptional scholarship, ASU emphasizes high-quality teaching, clinical supervision, and professional service.

Successful candidates will be expected to teach practicum and other courses, provide clinical supervision for counselors- and psychologists-in-training, advise masters students, administer center protocols and procedures in keeping with current best practices for counseling and training centers, co-facilitate community partnerships to develop new avenues for referral systems, assist in the preparation of reports and proposals as needed, and provide service to the program, college, university, profession, and community as appropriate. The position works closely with the CTC Director and reports to the Faculty Head for CCP.

Anticipated start date for this position is August 16, 2019. This position is a full-time, fixed-term, benefits-eligible, academic-year (9-month) appointment with no tenure implications. Clinical faculty have the strong possibility of long-term careers at ASU based on continued excellent performance, the needs of the institution, and the availability of funding. Background check required prior to employment. Salary is competitive and dependent on qualifications, experience, and rank.

Required Qualifications:
- Doctorate in counseling psychology or related field
- License-eligible as a psychologist or professional counselor in Arizona
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness
- Clinical supervision experience
- Demonstrated commitment to promoting diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice
- Knowledge of HIPAA regulations and policies

Desired Qualifications:
- Licensed as a psychologist in Arizona
- Evidence of effective teaching/supervision of practicum clinic or equivalent
- Eligible for the qualified supervisor credential in the state of Arizona
- Administrative or leadership experience
- Record of scholarly activity
- Experience developing community partnerships
- Active involvement in professional organizations

Application Procedure:
To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 12687. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:

1. A letter of interest outlining qualifications and experience as it relates to the position description
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g., teaching evaluations, syllabi)
4. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)
The application deadline is 1/3/2019 at 5pm; and if not filled, then every Friday thereafter until the search is closed. Official Transcripts and a background check are required prior employment. For technical assistance with your application contact cisahr@asu.edu. For position-related questions contact Search Committee Chair, Dr. Jamie Bludworth at james.bludworth@asu.edu.

Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law. (See ASU's complete non-discrimination statement at https://asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html; see ASU’s Title IX policy at https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/)

The CCP faculty believes that understanding and appreciating all aspects of human diversity, including gender, sexual/affectual orientation, race, ethnicity, culture, language, religion, spirituality, socioeconomic status, ability, and age are essential to effective graduate training. The program has a long history of commitment to diversity and multicultural competency development and actively seeks diverse faculty, staff, and students. Information about the programs and faculty can be found at https://cisa.asu.edu/graduate/ccp

ASU offers applicants an opportunity to voluntarily self-disclose information for the University affirmative action plan; applicants may complete an EEO survey for the position they are applying for online. Information you will need to complete the survey: Job Number: 12687; Job Title: Clinical Open-Rank faculty, Counseling and Counseling Psychology, Name: College of Integrative Sciences and Arts