The Faculty of Counseling and Counseling Psychology in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts at Arizona State University invites applicants for an open-rank clinical faculty position. The successful candidate will teach graduate courses in the clinical mental health counseling program, supervise clinical training in our state-of-the-art Counselor Training Center, advise master’s degree students, and engage in local and national professional service. The position reports to the head of the Faculty of Counseling and Counseling Psychology.

Arizona State University has developed a model for the New American University, creating an institution that is committed to excellence, access, and impact. Ranked #1 on the Most Innovative Schools list by U.S. News & World Report, ASU provides a vibrant intellectual community, pursues research that contributes to the public good, and assumes major responsibility for the economic, social, and cultural vitality of the communities it serves. In addition to exceptional scholarship, ASU emphasizes high-quality teaching, clinical supervision, and professional service. Complete information about the program and faculty can be found at the following website: https://cisa.asu.edu/graduate/ccp/C_Student-Resources

Anticipated start date for this position is August 16, 2019. This position is a full-time, fixed-term, benefits-eligible, academic-year (9-month) appointment with no tenure implications. Clinical faculty have the strong possibility of long-term careers at ASU based on continued excellent performance, the needs of the institution, and the availability of funding. Background check required prior to employment. Salary is competitive and dependent on qualifications, experience, and rank.

Required Qualifications:
- Doctorate in Counselor Education, Counseling Psychology, or related field at the time of appointment
- License-eligible as a Licensed Professional Counselor or Licensed Psychologist in Arizona
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness
- Clinical supervision experience
- Commitment to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion

Desired Qualifications:
- Eligibility for Qualified Supervision credential in Arizona
- Experience developing community partnerships to enhance training experience
- Active involvement in counseling-related professional organizations
- Record of scholarly activity

Application Procedure:
To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 12652. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:
1. A letter of interest outlining their scholarly agenda and qualifications and experience as it relates to the position
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Evidence of teaching effectiveness
4. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)

The application deadline is 12/15/2018 at 5pm; and if not filled, then every Friday thereafter until the search is closed. Official Transcripts required prior to first day of employment. A background check is required prior to employment. For technical assistance with your application contact cisahr@asu.edu, for position-related questions contact Search Committee Chair, Dr. Jennifer Pereira at jkpereir@asu.edu.

Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law. (See ASU’s complete non-discrimination statement at https://asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html; see ASU’s Title IX policy at https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/)

The Counseling and Counseling Psychology faculty is committed to diversity, equity, and social justice. The faculty believes that an essential part of graduate training is valuing individuals from diverse backgrounds with regard to gender, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, culture, language, religion, spirituality, social class, ability, and age.
ASU offers applicants an opportunity to voluntarily self-disclose information for the University affirmative action plan; applicants may complete an EEO survey for the position they are applying for online. Information you will need to complete the survey: Job Number: 12652; Job Title: Clinical Open-Rank faculty, Counseling and Counseling Psychology, Name: College of Integrative Sciences and Arts.