The College of Integrative Sciences and Arts (CISA) at Arizona State University invites applications for an Associate Dean position. Bringing together a multidisciplinary group of academic units and faculty, CISA offers undergraduate and graduate programs on three ASU campuses in the metropolitan Phoenix area, at several remote locations, and online. CISA’s academic units are comprised of distinguished and dedicated researchers and teachers working across all ranks (52 tenured/tenure-track faculty and 155 fixed-term faculty). The faculty offer degrees in 23 undergraduate and 8 graduate programs that are guided by principles of accessibility, inclusivity, and interdisciplinary inquiry.

The Associate Dean will collaborate with the dean, faculty heads, and administrative staff to support the academic, research, and service missions of the college. The Associate Dean will assist with curriculum development, program assessment, academic personnel reviews, and student services, and will represent the Dean at selective meetings and events. This is a fiscal-year appointment, with an expected start date of July 1, 2018. The Associate Dean position is a benefits-eligible appointment with tenure implications. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience.

Required Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in one of the disciplines in the college, or a closely-related discipline
- Strong record of research commensurate with appointment at the rank of professor or advanced associate professor
- Evidence of effective leadership skills
- Demonstrated commitment to fostering diversity and inclusion
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness
- Experience with curriculum and/or academic program development
- Demonstrated commitment to student success
- Demonstrated ability to communicate with a wide range of academic and community audiences
- Strong record of service contributions (community, university, national, and/or international)

Desired Qualifications:

- Demonstrated national or international leadership in their discipline
- Evidence of effective administrative experience in higher education (e.g., program leader, department chair, director of center or research lab)
- Experience leading academic and student affairs
- Experience with academic personnel

Application Procedures:

To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one, combined .pdf document under job number 12287. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Candidates should include:

- A letter of application addressing qualifications for the position, with a focus on the following areas: leadership/administration experience and accomplishments, scholarly focus and impact, and teaching philosophy.
- Curriculum vitae
- Names, titles, mailing addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers of three persons from whom we may request reference letters
The application deadline is 03/30/2018 at 5pm, and, if not filled, then every Friday thereafter until the search is closed.
