Faculty Associate, Organizational Leadership,
Interdisciplinary Studies, Organizational Studies or Liberal Studies
(Pool Recruitment #11596)
ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY

The Department of Leadership & Interdisciplinary Studies faculty in the College of Letters and Sciences at the Tempe campus of Arizona State University invite applications for Faculty Associate(s) to begin in Fall 2016. Faculty Associates will teach courses in one of four undergraduate degrees: Organizational Leadership, Interdisciplinary Studies, Organizational Studies or Liberal Studies. Successful candidates will engage, assist, and instruct online students in one of more than twenty-five different course options found at https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=BIIS&t=2167&hon=F and https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=OGL&t=2167&hon=F.

This recruitment is to establish a pool of applicants available for teaching the 2016-2017 academic year. Faculty Associate positions are one semester, non-benefits-eligible, fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon unit needs, funding and sufficient enrollment. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load. A background check is required prior to employment.

Required Qualifications:

- Master’s degree from an accredited institution in a field related to Organizational Leadership, Interdisciplinary Studies or Liberal Studies
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness
- Evidence of teaching, scholarship, or industry experience related to organizational leadership, interdisciplinary studies, liberal studies and/or organizational studies

Desired Qualifications:

- PhD, ABD or appropriate terminal degree from an accredited institution in a field with an interdisciplinary and/or leadership focus
- Evidence of university or college teaching effectiveness
- Experience teaching courses similar to those required for our degrees (courses can be found at https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=BIIS&t=2167&hon=F and https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=OGL&t=2167&hon=F)
- Evidence of success teaching in an online environment
- Experience teaching in Blackboard (online learning management system)
- Industry experience in organizational leadership (if interested in teaching organizational leadership courses)
- Experience working in collaborative environments
- Experience working with diverse undergraduate populations
- Reside within the state of Arizona

Application Procedure:

To apply, visit https://cls.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 11596. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:

1. A letter of application addressing required and desired qualifications
2. Current curriculum vitae
3. One page statement of teaching philosophy
4. Evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g. copies of teaching evaluations, a write-up by a supervisor confirming teaching evaluations, course materials, etc.)
5. Unofficial graduate transcripts
6. SPEAK test or TSE score (if a non-native English Speaker)
7. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)

The application deadline is 06/17/2016 at 5pm; and if not filled, then every Friday beginning the week thereafter through the fiscal year (2016) based on the needs of the academic unit, and as needed for each semester period. If you have questions, email: SLSJobs@asu.edu.

General Information: Arizona State University is a comprehensive public research university recently named #1 in the United States for innovation, followed by #2 Stanford and #3 MIT. We measure our success not by whom we exclude, but rather by whom we include and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities we serve. ASU’s College of Letters and Sciences is home to innovative teachers who are guided by educational access, student success, applied learning, and interdisciplinary inquiry. We understand there are many paths to achieving a university education, and we build undergraduate and graduate degree programs and pathways that are flexible and relevant for a rapidly changing world.
