The Leadership and Interdisciplinary Studies faculty in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts at Arizona State University is seeking applicants for a pool of Faculty Associates for the 2017-2018 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will teach courses in one of four undergraduate degrees: Organizational Leadership, Interdisciplinary Studies, Organizational Studies or Liberal Studies, prepare course materials, evaluate student work, and hold office hours to assist students. Course assignments may occur in a variety of modalities (online, iCourse, on-ground at the Tempe and/or Polytechnic campus). Faculty Associate positions are one semester, non-benefits-eligible, fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon unit needs, funding and sufficient enrollment. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load.

Required Qualifications:

- Master’s degree from an accredited institution, at time of appointment, in a field related to Organizational Leadership, Interdisciplinary Studies or Liberal Studies
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness
- Evidence of teaching, scholarship, or industry experience related to organizational leadership, interdisciplinary studies and/or liberal studies

Desired Qualifications:

- PhD, ABD or appropriate terminal degree from an accredited institution in a field related to Organizational Leadership, Interdisciplinary Studies or Liberal Studies
- Evidence of university or college teaching effectiveness
- Experience teaching courses similar to those required for our degrees (courses can be found at https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=BIS&t=2167&hon=F and https://webapp4.asu.edu/catalog/courselist?s=OGL&t=2167&hon=F)
- Evidence of success teaching in an online environment
- Experience teaching in Blackboard and Canvas (online learning management system)
- Industry experience in organizational leadership (if interested in teaching organizational leadership courses)
- Experience working in collaborative environments
- Experience working with diverse undergraduate populations
- Reside within the state of Arizona

Application Procedure:

To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 11937. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:

1. A letter of application addressing required and desired qualifications
2. Current curriculum vitae
3. One-page statement of teaching philosophy
4. Evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g. copies of teaching evaluations, a write-up by a supervisor confirming teaching evaluations, course materials, etc.)
5. Unofficial graduate transcripts
6. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)

The application deadline is Friday, 4/14/2017 at 5pm; then every Friday thereafter based on the needs of the academic unit, and as needed for each semester period. A background check is required prior to employment. If you have position questions, please contact Erica Buschatzke at Erica.Buschatzke@asu.edu. For technical questions please email cisajobs@asu.edu.

General Information: Arizona State University is a comprehensive public research university named #1 in the United States for innovation for the second consecutive year, followed by #2 Stanford and #3 MIT. We measure our success not by whom we exclude, but rather by whom we include and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities we serve. ASU’s College of Integrative Sciences and Arts is home to innovative teachers who are guided by educational access, student success, applied learning, and interdisciplinary inquiry. We understand there are many paths to achieving a university education, and we build undergraduate and graduate degree programs and pathways that are flexible and relevant for a rapidly changing world.
