Report of Doctoral Comprehensive Examination

The Plan of Study (iPOS) must be approved by the Graduate College before a student is eligible to pass the comprehensive examination portfolio.

Instructions:

1. Part I & II: The student completes Part I and II, then submits this form and the completed Portfolio Checklist to the advisor.
2. Part III: The examining committee completes Part III by signing the form and indicating their votes of Passed or Failed.
3. Part IV: The Faculty Head completes Part IV by signing the form, confirming the majority vote of the examining committee, and signifying that the proper procedures have been followed for the examinations.
4. Notification: The academic unit sends the student a written statement of the results of the examination.

All comprehensive examination results, including failure in any one of the required examinations, must be reported to the Program Advisor and Graduate College. Failure in the comprehensive examinations is final unless the student petitions for a re-examination, the supervisory committee, and the Faculty Head recommend, and the Graduate College Dean approves the re-examination.
