The Faculty of Writers’ Studio in the College of Integrative Sciences and Arts at the Tempe campus of Arizona State University invite applications to establish a pool of Faculty Associates for the 2018-2019 academic year. The successful candidate(s) will instruct and engage students in rigorous, online first-year composition curriculum, prepare class materials, evaluate student work, and hold office hours to assist students. Faculty Associate positions are one semester, non-benefits-eligible, fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications, not to exceed .40 FTE. The number of courses is contingent upon unit needs, funding and sufficient enrollment. Salary is based upon qualifications and assigned teaching load. A background check is required prior to employment.

Required Qualifications:
- Master’s degree in Rhetoric and Composition or other student-centered, writing intensive field, at time of appointment
- Evidence of excellent teaching effectiveness
- Experience using technology to teach composition courses
- Excellent English written and spoken communication skills
- Post-secondary experience teaching students in writing-intensive courses

Desired Qualifications:
- Terminal degree in Rhetoric and Composition or other student-centered, writing intensive field
- Demonstrated success meeting the needs of diverse student populations and/or reaching out to diverse communities
- Prior experience teaching writing on-line in post-secondary environment
- Experience designing first-year composition courses
- Evidence of experience with multimodal curriculum
- Evidence of professional development activities
- Experience with collaborative teaching

Application Procedure:
To apply, visit https://cisa.asu.edu/jobs and upload your application as one combined .pdf document under job number 12366. Only electronic submissions will be reviewed. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications must contain:
1. A letter of application addressing required and desired qualifications
2. Current curriculum vitae
3. One page statement of teaching philosophy
4. Evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g., course evaluations, teaching evaluation, or sample syllabi and assignments)
5. Unofficial graduate transcripts
6. Information for three professional references (their position, title, e-mail, phone number)

The application deadline is 04/20/2018 at 5pm; and if not filled, then every Friday beginning the week thereafter through the fiscal year (2019) based on the needs of the academic unit, and as needed for each semester period. A background check and official transcripts are required prior to employment. If you have position questions, please contact Search Committee Chair Dr. Michelle Stuckey at mastucke@asu.edu. For technical questions, please email: cisahr@asu.edu.

General Information: Arizona State University is a comprehensive public research university named #1 in the United States for innovation for the third consecutive year, followed by #2 Stanford and #3 MIT. We measure our success not by whom we exclude, but rather by whom we include and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities we serve. ASU’s College of Integrative Sciences and Arts is home to innovative teachers who are guided by educational access, student success, applied learning, and interdisciplinary inquiry. We understand there are many paths to achieving a university education, and we build undergraduate and graduate degree programs and pathways that are flexible and relevant for a rapidly changing world.
